Roy Romer
Governor
John J. Tipton
Executive Director

The Colorado Department of Revenue, through the Motor Carrier Services section, is pleased to be able to provide an updated version of the IRP Manual to the citizens of Colorado.

Over the last several years, the focus of the Department of Revenue and all of its divisions has been and continues to be on service to the people of the State. Through increased effectiveness and efficiency measures, the role is to bring better, more meaningful services to all of you, while, at the same time, reducing the costs for those services.

During the 1989 legislative session, the Department was successful, in cooperation with industry, in obtaining approval from the Legislature to eliminate the Gross Ton Mile Tax. This tax was time consuming and expensive to administer for both the Department and industry; therefore, with the cooperation of a large number of people, we were able to repeal the Gross Ton Mile Tax and implement a registration based system. This new system will save the taxpayers of Colorado over $700,000 per year and will save industry substantially more than that.

Another focus of the Department efforts at customer service has been the implementation of a "one stop shopping" concept. This concept allows motor carriers the opportunity to go to one location within the Department of Revenue to obtain all of the necessary permits, licenses and other information in order to allow them to operate on the Colorado highways.

The motor carrier industry is a very important and significant part of Colorado's economic health and viability. We hope that the efforts of the Department of Revenue to work in cooperation with industry and to provide better, more effective and more cost efficient services to the industry will enhance your economic opportunities and provide a more positive environment in which to operate.

Thank you for your continued support of the Department and the State of Colorado.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John J. Tipton", is written over a horizontal line.

John J. Tipton
Executive Director
Colorado Department of Revenue

INTRODUCTION

This is your permanent copy of the Colorado Motor Vehicle Apportioned Registration Manual.

It provides directions and guidelines for the preparation and processing of applications for Colorado Motor Carrier Services which include, International Registrations, (IRP), Public Utilities Commission, (PUC), Highway Department (oversized, overweight permits), Excise Tax, (IFTA) and the Agricultural Department.

The manual includes a Table of Contents and an Alphabetical Index which will assist you in finding material on most of the kinds of applications you will be receiving. It will be helpful to review these references periodically to familiarize yourself with the subject matter in the manual.

If you have a problem with any of the terms referred to in the manual, please refer to the Definitions Section.

As you will note, ensuring proper information on applications submitted is not a simple, easily defined process. A manual of this nature cannot cover every conceivable situation you may be confronted with in dealing with the complexities of the process.

If you should need assistance, please call on us at the International Registration Section at (303)572-5602 or write us at 140 West Sixth Avenue, Room 107, Denver, Colorado 80204.

You will receive updated pages when procedures change.

 - b. This is applicable for Colorado based carriers going into other I.R.P. jurisdictions as well as for carriers based in other I.R.P. jurisdictions operating in Colorado.
2. The Division of Motor Vehicle, International Registration Plan Section in Denver, Colorado administers the registration of interstate commercial vehicles. The registration year is from January 1 to December 31, with a grace period through the last day of January. THERE WILL BE NO EXTENSION PERIOD AFTER JANUARY 31.

3. All I.R.P. applications are filed through the IRP Section in Denver or Revenue District Offices located throughout the state. Applications cannot be accepted or worked in the local County Clerks Offices.
4. Merely filing an I.R.P. application Does Not constitute authorization to operate an apportionable vehicle. It is necessary for the applicant to secure either permanent or temporary authorization from the I.R.P. Section before legally operating any relevant vehicle.

GENERAL INFORMATION

SUBJECT: INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION PLAN

C. RECIPROCITY

1. Colorado has cancelled all reciprocal agreements beginning January 1, 1991.
2. All vehicles from states that are not members of the I.R.P. or have not signed a prorated agreement with us, will be charged trip permits at Colorado Ports of Entry or from the Colorado State Patrol.

EXAMPLE:

- b. A trailer travels 50% Colorado, 20% Kansas, 20% California, and 10% Montana.
 - c. Payment would be calculated as 70% Colorado, 20% California and 10% Montana.
3. California and Montana will still register trailers for Colorado.

GENERAL INFORMATION

SUBJECT: APPORTIONED LICENSE PLATES AND CAB CARDS

LEASED VEHICLES

SUBJECT: PROCEDURES

A. OWNER OPERATOR REGISTRATION Proportional registration for owner-operators who lease their vehicles to motor carriers may be accomplished in one of the following procedures:

1. The carrier (lessee) may be the registrant and the vehicle may be registered by the carrier with the owner-operator shown as the owner. The allocation of fees shall be according to the operational records of the carrier. The identification plates and cab cards shall be the property of the carrier.
2. The owner-operator (lessor) may be the registrant and the vehicle may be registered in the owner-operator's name. The allocation of fees shall be according to the operational records of the owner-operator.

NOTE: Because of the above change in the International Registration Plan, owner-operators will be afforded the opportunity to register their vehicle under their own name and yet be permanently leased to a common carrier.

LEASED VEHICLES

SUBJECT: POTENTIAL DISADVANTAGES

A. AUDIT REQUIREMENTS

1. Each carrier registering vehicles with apportion tags WILL BE SUBJECT TO AUDIT under the I.R.P. Plan.
2. Mileage records MUST be maintained by the owner-operator and the registrant.

B. TRIP PERMITS

1. Owner-operators traveling through a particular I.R.P. jurisdiction that does not appear on the cab card is subject to appropriate fees due for that trip. For example, an owner-operator registers or qualifies only with jurisdictions where the carrier has paid apportioned fees. When the owner-operator moves to a new carrier and travels in additional jurisdictions, fees in excess of the 100% originally paid must then be paid and a new cab card issued.
2. Every new lease could result in the need for adding new jurisdictions and paying fees in excess of 100%.

C. REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Carriers may require all owner-operators to register lease units with their I.R.P. account as a condition for leasing units.
2. Owner-operators registering units in their base jurisdiction of residence will not be recognized if the lessee is based in a non I.R.P. jurisdiction.
3. The carrier is required to purchase a base tag in that state.

NOTE: If the registrant is an owner-operator qualifying for the first time, please refer to Preparation of New Accounts when completing Schedule "B".

 - a. TRUCKS with an empty weight exceeding 16,000 pounds
 - b. TRUCKS with an empty weight between 10,000 - 16,000 that are utilized in conjunction with a trailer and the combination of vehicles including it's load, exceeds 16,000 pounds.
 - c. All other power units. (Tractors, Truck-Tractors, Buses, etc.)
 - d. It is important to note that even if the vehicle coming into Colorado, weighs less than the aforementioned weight, it still must comply with other state and federal laws, so there might be occasion when a POE officer needs to detain the vehicle to ensure compliance.

B. CLEARANCE EXCEPTIONS

1. The following exceptions do not have to clear Colorado Ports of Entry:
 - a. Colorado registered vehicles classified as Public Utility Trucks and bearing PUC plates.
 - b. Colorado registered cement mixers bearing light truck plates.

D. TRIP PERMITS IN EXCESS OF REGISTERED WEIGHT

1. An owner or operator wishing to make an occasional trip with a gross vehicle weight in excess of their declared registered gross weight is able to purchase a 72 hour permit prior to putting the vehicle on the highway.
 - a. If a permit is not purchased before the vehicle reaches a Colorado highway, or if steps are not taken to ensure compliance, the operator will be cited under violation CRS. 42-3-123 (13) (b.3), operating commercial vehicle in interstate commerce at a gross vehicle weight in excess of registered declared gross vehicle weight.
2. PROCEDURES
 - a. The operator of the vehicle is able to call the nearest port from the state's border to inform the POE officer that the vehicle has a legal weight in excess of the vehicle's registered gross vehicle weight.
 - b. The operator identifies the vehicle by company name, vehicle description (unit or Vehicle Identification Number) and estimated time of arrival (within 24 hours of call). The vehicle's driver must also obtain the port officer's name as a way of identification when he either reaches the fixed facility, or is stopped by one of the state's mobile teams or the Colorado State Patrol.

E. SPECIAL FUEL

1. The Ports of Entry in Colorado are responsible for collecting special fuel tax, or confirming compliance with special fuel requirements.
2. If a carrier is a member of the International Fuel Tax Agreement (IFTA) the POE will honor a current IFTA sticker and license. It is important to note that the Colorado POE will honor an up-to-date license if the carrier does not have an IFTA sticker, but a sticker will not be honored without a license.
3. Those motor carrier operators that are not members of IFTA are able to set up an account with the state. If this particular option is exercised, a Special Fuel User License will be distributed to the owner of the vehicle(s). One license will be issued per company setting up the account and a photocopy of that license is required to be kept in every vehicle of the fleet.
4. The third option for an operator when it comes to fulfilling the special fuel obligation in Colorado, is to purchase the fuel from the pump prior to entering a Colorado port or pay the port of entry $.18 for every four miles travelled in Colorado.

OTHER AGENCIES INFORMATION

SUBJECT: PORTS OF ENTRY

F. CLEARANCE PROCEDURE

1. The Colorado POE uses a computer automation system to identify, and weigh, vehicles obtaining clearance in the state.
 - a. When a vehicle pulls onto the scale at a fixed facility, the POE officer looks for either the vehicle's VIN (Vehicle Identification Number) or Alpha Identifier number on the side of the power unit.
 - b. That number is then entered into the computer to access vehicle specific information, and the vehicle weighs through.
2. If the vehicle is not overweight, or other problems do not arise, the operator will be allowed to leave without having to park the truck and go into the port.
3. To comply with port automation requirements, the owner of the vehicle should do the following:
 - a. Affix company name or logo to both sides of power unit.
 - b. Put the last eight characters of the VIN on the passenger side of the cab or apply for an Alpha Identifier through Port Headquarters.
 - c. Use contrasting colors.
 - d. Make the characters large enough that they can be read from a distance of 50 feet when the vehicle is not moving. (Recommended size: 2 1/2")

4. Exercising this procedure should expedite the clearance process. However, on January 1, 1990, Colorado went to the weight/distance registration system which eliminated the state's current strategy for developing, and updating, an equipment list.
5. Since that time, Colorado has been in the process of not only developing a new list, but the state is also attempting to develop a system that will give the POE the ability to easily update those records.
6. The POE is entering all of the new vehicle information into the automation system, so if a vehicle attempts to clear one of the ports, and the information does not appear in the system, the officer calls the driver of the vehicle inside in an effort to obtain the new information.
7. Once the data is entered into the computer, it is stored for a short amount of time and then sent to the General Government Computer Center (GGCC) in Denver. The information is then processed in the main system and sent back out, statewide, to all the other Port of Entry weigh stations.
8. The computer processing time is relatively short, which means the driver should only be inconvenienced for a brief period. We apologize in advance for any problems this might cause, and ask for your patience in dealing with this matter.
