

Conclusion

Crime and justice are complex phenomena. This report was intended to briefly summarize the state of crime and justice in Colorado at the beginning of the millennium. The Office of Research and Statistics welcomes your feedback and suggestions for topics or statistics for inclusion in the next Crime and Justice report, planned for publication in 2006.

