

UNITED STATES SENATE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20510

KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON
TEXAS

Dear Ambassador Blinken -

I really enjoyed meeting
you and Vera last week.
You are doing a wonderful job and I appreciate all the efforts you're making to help Hungary as they are emerging into a strong democracy.
You and Vera are also ensuring our assets there

which is wonderful.

I hope to see you
when you're here - but if not this time - on another.

Thank you for all you're doing and for your fine staff.

The Honorable
Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison
United States Senate
1st and Constitution Avenue, N.E.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Senator Hutchison:

How nice to hear from you. It was very thoughtful of you to write and to send a happy souvenir of your visit. I will think of you when I have my morning coffee.

We very much enjoyed having you and the delegation visit us late last month. Your visit was particularly timely coming as it did on the eve of Prime Minister Horn's visit to the U.S. I thought, by the way, that his meetings in Washington went extremely well.

Once again, with thanks and all best wishes, I remain,

Sincerely,
