STATE-FUNDED STUDENT AID PROGRAMS

For the Year Ended June 30, 2010

Colorado Mountain Junior College District (the College) is a local district college including Eagle, Lake, Pitkin, Summit, Garfield and Routt counties, Colorado. The service area also includes Grand, Jackson and Chaffee counties, Colorado.

The financial and compliance audit of the various state-funded student assistance programs of the College for the year ended June 30, 2010 was directed toward the objectives and criteria set forth in the CDHE Financial Aid Policy, adopted September, 2009. The state student financial assistance programs were audited concurrently with the federal financial aid programs for the year ended June 30, 2010.

STATE-FUNDED ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

The various state-funded student assistance programs at the College include the Colorado Student Grant Program, Colorado Work-Study Program, the Merit Program, the Governor's Opportunity Scholarship, CLEAP, SLEAP, and Pre-Collegiate Grant.

The state-funded assistance awards made by the College were $504,274 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010. No state-funded Perkins loan matching was made or required in fiscal year 2010.

The Director of Financial Aid is responsible for administration of these programs. This responsibility includes application processing, eligibility determination, and financial aid packaging, as well as ensuring compliance with regulations governing the participation of the College in federal and state financial aid programs. The College's Dean of Finance and Budget is responsible for the programs' financial management, general ledger accounting, payments, and collections.

During the audit period, the College obtained authorization to award federal student financial aid funds as follows:

Federal Pell Grant Program	$ 2,480,007
Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program	29,007
Federal Work-Study Program	39,330
Academic Competitiveness Grants	7,775

During the audit period, the College was authorized to award Colorado student financial aid funds as follows:

Colorado Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership Program	$ 18,045
Colorado Grant Program	382,538
Colorado Work-Study	103,691

Report Summary

Purpose and scope of audit

The audit of the state-funded student assistance programs was performed in accordance with the financial compliance elements of "Standards for Audits of Governmental Organizations, Programs, Activities, and Functions" issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, as revised through 2004. The purpose of the audit was to formulate an opinion on the Statement of Student Aid Program Appropriations, Expenditures, and Reversions for the year ended June 30, 2010, and to determine if these programs were administered in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, terms of agreements, and CCHE directives which were set forth in the Handbook.

The audit included:

Expressing an opinion on the Statement of Student Aid Program Appropriations, Expenditures and Reversions.

Evaluation of the policies, procedures and practices used to administer these programs.

Determination of compliance with applicable sections of the CDHE guidelines, 2009 version.

Summary of current year comments

The audit covered the period July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010 and fieldwork was performed during the period June 21, 2010 through September 3, 2010 at the campus business and student financial aid offices.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

October 20, 2010

Board of Trustees Colorado Mountain Junior College District Glenwood Springs, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Student Aid Programs Appropriations, Expenditures and Reversions of the State-Funded Student Assistance Programs of the Colorado Mountain Junior College District for the year ended June 30, 2010. This financial statement is the responsibility of the College's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note A, this financial statement is prepared in conformity with the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Colorado Commission on Higher Education, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the appropriations, expenditures and reversions of the State-Funded Student Aid Programs of the Colorado Mountain Junior College District for the year ended June 30, 2010 on the basis of accounting described in Note A.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Trustees and management of the Colorado Mountain Junior College District and for filing with the Legislative Audit Committee and the Colorado Commission on Higher Education and should not be used for any other purpose.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

June 30, 2010

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Colorado Mountain Junior College District's accounting system is structured and administered in accordance with the accounting principles promulgated by the National Association of College and University Business Officers in the revised publication College and University Business Administration, as supplemented by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants industry audit guide Audits of Colleges and Universities.

All student aid is expended on a cash basis except for Perkins Loans and the College Work-Study Program (CWS). Perkins Loans are recorded as loans receivable when the funds are disbursed. The CWS is on the accrual basis in that the expense is recognized when the services are performed.

Colorado CLEAP consists of state funds and federal funds. The amount shown is the combined total.
